60-hour Elementary English Course Common European Framework A2 (BASIC USER) Learning Objectives / Syllabus

This course is designed to help students at the A2 level to obtain basic functional competency in speaking, reading, writing and listening in English. It promotes the acquisition of language skills necessary for everyday communication as well as a basic understanding of the culture found in the countries where English is spoken natively (UK, North America and Australia).

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course the students will be able to:

- Actively participate in conversations in English on a variety of familiar topics.
- Understand native speech in basic social contexts.
- Understand common cultural facts relating to everyday life in English-speaking countries.
- Understand the content of basic non-literary written texts and comment on them.
- Express themselves in simple narratives on familiar topics relating to daily life.
- Understand basic grammar structures and apply them in their speaking and writing.
